are repugnant to the average red-blooded boy. No girlygirly frills for him.

To mingle grace with manliness is a hard nut for many a designer of boys' styles to crack.

We've cracked it. Lines of boyish grace are happily blended in our garments with an air of sturdy manhood.

$12.50 to $35.

We sell everything that boys wear at prices which are, quality considered, very moderate.

AN EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY TO PURCHASE

A First-Class Copper Stock

The South Butte Copper Mining Company, with its property within twenty minutes' drive of the Post-Office at Butte, Montana, bids fair to become a very large copper producer, which can be seen by reading the following letter copper ore as the other Copper Companies here when we reach 1.000-foot level.

The outlook was never yet falled to "make good" when sufficiently developed, there seems to be no doubt of our success.

In conclusion will say that any person who is fortunate in seeming "South Ratte" stock will never regist having purchased it. With best regards I am.

Very truly yours.

(Signed)

General Manager South Butte Copper Co.

Continued interest in Broadcloth costumes of chiffon variety in Paris-Plaids second favorites.

A careful survey of the dreamnking field in Paris discloses continued interest in broadcioto costumes of the chiffon variety. In such a large market, supplying costumes for women all over the world, it naturally follows that pretty hearly every color is represented. However, there are indications that black blues—navy, crow's wing, royal, online, cisl—reds, greens, browns and London smoke are the leaders.

Beauty to smoke a but he beaters.

Browns, in new color thits known to the Paris huyers as Spanish wine shades, are being adopted and pushed by many Paris dressmakers. This shade is of a yellowish-brown variety. The adoption of this color as one of the staple shades for fall was predicted by The Economist some months ago.

Plaids Second Favorite

For costumes intended for street and gen-year, cloth plaids are second favorities to brooths and are being confidently recommendes he leading dressmakers of Paris. The riffects are confined to dark color combination and brown and brown and brown and brown and brown and other harmonious color com-lons.

Voiles Again to the Front

Voles are again forcing themselves into front rank. They are being adopted and pushed by all of the leading dressmakers, dry goods establishments and wholesale distributors in Paris. The same applies to New York, and there is scarcely a buyer visiting the New York market who has not ordered out volles for immediate use and for future delivery.—From Dry Goods Economist of October.

HERE THEY ARE, as the best Dry Goods information points out. Liberal display of choice designs. # FINE LIBRARY OF MR. SINTON SOLD IN NORTH FOR $1,546 ibrary was largely made up of works on that poet.

After ills death, when his executor lind a catalogue printed of the three thorsand volumes comprising the library, the most imparisant collection was found to be books on Virginia. The Burns list, however, was interesting The library was at arst briefly catalogued, without full description of beoks, and offers invited the purchase of the collection as a whole. Later it was determined to sell at auction. The rules catalogue made and thirty-two entries. Those relating to Burns numbered one hundred and thirty-two entries. Those relating to Burns numbered one hundred and theretween and virgina innety-five. The remainder of the subjects was made up of English poetry, including Scott. Byron and Snakespeare; works on Scotland and Ireland. Arctle exploration, and others of travel and description. Napoleomans, and general fistory, Washingtoman and scarce biographies; art and illustrated books, and general literature.

The catalogue was well printed, with inginana and scarce boographies, are and illustrated books, and general liverature.

The catalogue was well printed, with good descriptions and few errors. The only error of note was "Weems" substituted for "Wirt" as author of "Old Bachder." The miscellaneous books brought, 592.31, Verginia, $46.55, and Burns, $15.50, making the total amount fetched, $1.50, x... This was about the figure the book-dealers thought the library would bring at New York author, and the cost of selling is usually about thirty per cent.

The best selling item in the miscellaneous books was the Waverly Novela, which brought $55.50, the recent price of the auction for a single entry. The prices resilized on the Burns volumes were all small, the largest amount being $15.50, for the Edenburg works of 1577-20.

While some of the Virginia items sold low, others fetched good prices, and the average night be called fair. Altogether it is questionable if they would have brought a larger sum at a sale in Richmond. The best price was for set of Burk's History of Virginia, $41, and a second set sold for $35, Beverley's History of Virginia, $41, and a second set sold for $35, Beverley's History of Virginia, $41, and a second set sold for $35, Beverley's History of Virginia, $41, and a second set sold for $35, Beverley's History of Virginia, $41, and a
